FROM

G. O. KERWOOD, Esq., I.C.S.,
OFFG. INSPECTOR GENERAL OF REGISTRATION, ASSAM,

TO

THE SECOND SECRETARY TO THE CHIEF COMMISSIONER OF ASSAM.

Dated Shillong, the 26th April 1920.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to submit the following Report on the administration of the Registration Department for the three years ending the 31st December 1919. Four Imperial and one Provincial statements are enclosed.

Unless otherwise stated, comparisons are made with the preceding triennium.

2. Mr. S. N. Mackenzie, I.C.S., held charge of the Department from the 1st January 1917 to the 2nd October 1918, Mr. W. L. Scott, I.C.S., to the 23rd January 1919, Mr. S. N. Mackenzie, I.C.S., to the 22nd November 1919, and Mr. B. C. Allen, I.C.S., to the end of the year 1919.

3. The number of offices increased from 39 to 41. Experimental offices were opened at Bhangabazar and Nabiganj in the district of Sylhet: ultimately a permanent office was opened at Bhangabazar. The number and constitution of the offices at the end of the triennium were as follows:—

Whole-time offices permanent	...	...	...	...	26
Ditto temporary	...	...	...	...	1
Ex-officio offices	...	...	...	...	14
Total					41

4. A Special Sub-Registrar and a Sub-Registrar died, and a Special Sub-Registrar retired.

Changes in staff.

5. The Additional District Magistrate of Sylhet was appointed Registrar of that district. The pay of the Special Sub-Registrars was revised from Rs. 175—5—250 to Rs. 180—10—250 and the cadre of Sub-Registrars was re-adjusted.

6. The following statement gives the results of the working of the Department

Brief summary of results, total registrations (Form I). for the last 12 years:—

• —	Number of registrations.				Total receipts.	Total expenditure.	Surplus.	Number of registration offices (average).

7. The variations in the number of documents registered under the main heads and their percentages of increase or decrease in the triennium under report, as compared with the previous triennium, and in the year 1919 as compared with the year 1918 are shown in the following table:—

	The triennium 1914-16 as compared with the triennium 1917-19.		The year 1919 as compared with the year 1918.

In the Assam Valley Division the total number of registrations increased from 81,111 to 83,059 and their aggregate value from Rs. 1,07,88,598 to Rs. 1,29,01,918. The most noticeable increases occurred in the case of compulsory registrations of instruments of sale of the value of Rs. 100 and upwards, and of other instruments registered under section 17 (b) and (c) of the Registration Act and of optional registrations of instruments of mortgage. On the other hand, the number of compulsory registrations of instruments of mortgage and of instruments of lease other than perpetual leases diminished. The total number both of compulsory and of optional registrations increased.

In Cachar the total number of registrations fell sharply from 42,663 to 36,162 and their aggregate value from Rs. 82,30,892 to Rs. 62,56,763. A curious feature of the statistics is that whereas compulsory registrations fell in number from 37,817 to 29,341 and in value from Rs. 74,89,938 to Rs. 52,77,716, optional registrations increased in number from 4,846 to 6,821 and in value from Rs. 7,40,954 to Rs. 9,79,048.

In Sylhet, where the bulk of the registration work is done, there was a slight increase in the number of registrations, from 1,93,923 to 1,93,933, but their aggregate value fell from Rs. 2,79,64,088 to Rs. 2,55,51,645. There was a large increase in the number of registrations of instruments of sale or exchange of a value less than Rs. 100 and a slight increase in the case of similar instruments of a value of Rs. 100 and upwards: apart from these instances the number of all other compulsory registrations decreased. The total number of optional registrations fell from 28,804 to 25,662 and their value from Rs. 38,29,977 to Rs. 31,26,685.

There is a small amount of registration work done in the Khasi and Jaintia Hills. It calls for no comment.

Operations other than Registrations (Form No. IV).

8. The number of miscellaneous operations decreased from 21,738 to 19,588.

9. The number of Muhammadan Registry offices increased from 35 to 40. The following table shows the number of ceremonies registered and the fees and gratuities realised during the last 6 years:—

Working of the Muhammadan Marriages and Divorces Registration Act.

	Ceremonies.	Fees and gratuities.
1	2	3
		Rs.
1914	6,585	9,339
1915	6,314	9,546
1916	5,893	7,974
1917	4,999	7,623
1918	6,011	9,583
1919	5,585	8,529

The permanent committee for the supervision of Muhammadan Registrars and Kazis, constituted in 1915 for a period of three years, was reconstituted in 1918. The non-official members remained the same : the Principal of the Sylhet Government Madrasah took the place of Khan Bahadur Maulvi Muhibuddin Ahmad, Extra Assistant Commissioner. It was held that travelling allowance was inadmissible and no inspections were made by the committee.

10. The table below gives the number of kabinnamas and talaknamas registered in Sub-Registry offices and the fees realised thereon during the past 6 years :—

Year.					Kabinnamas.	Talaknamas.	Fees.
1					2	3	4
							Rs.
1914	...	...	...	...	2,167	169	2,909
1915	...	...	...	...	2,362	146	4,235
1916	...	...	...	...	1,539	110	2,842
1917	...	...	...	...	1,803	118	2,874
1918	...	...	...	...	1,502	105	2,111
1919	...	...	...	...	1,901	122	3,035

11. The number of unclaimed documents fell from 9,084 to 7,435. Through the use of the procedure laid down in rule 61 of the rules under section 69 of the Act the number of these documents was reduced in the Sunamganj office from 1,037 to 89. The District Registrar of Sylhet reports that Sub-Registrars are being instructed to use their influence to prevail on parties to deposit the postal expenses. The number of unclaimed documents destroyed increased slightly.

12. The number of documents impounded increased from 973 to 1,036.

13. The number of prosecutions increased from 4 to 10.

14. Appeals to District Registrars increased in number from 39 to 49 : the number of appeals to Special Sub-Registrars was 712, a reduction of 148.

15. Receipts fell by 6.31 per cent. (Rs. 20,551) to Rs. 3,05,687. In 1919, however receipts were nearly 32 per cent. better than in 1918. There was an increase in 1919 in registration in all districts, and one may hope that this is a sign of a return to normal conditions.

16. Expenditure, excluding charges for superintendence, rose from Rs. 1,92,776 to Rs. 2,09,070. The amounts paid as salaries to Registering officers and their establishments increased, while the percentage paid to Registering officers and the cost of temporary establishment decreased. The opening of new offices and the destruction by fire of the South Sylhet office involved additional expenditure. The new offices at Bhangabazar and Nabiganj proved successful financially.

17. The cadre of ministerial officers employed in Sylhet was revised. The pay of menials was raised to Rs. 8 a month. Steps were taken to check the unnecessary employment of extra-muharrirs.

18. The average time taken to complete registration did not, as a rule, exceed two days. In the Thakurbari, Jaldhup, Sukhair, Srimangal, Goalpara and Golaghat offices the period was sometimes longer. The first four of these offices are in Sylhet and the District Registrar attributes the delay to want of extra-muharrirs.

19. On the 30th March 1919 the South Sylhet Sub registry office was destroyed by fire. All the records and furniture were burnt except 2 pending documents which were with the Sub-Registrar. The Government of India excused a second payment of registration fees and stamp duty in respect of the destroyed documents.

The District Registrar of Sylhet complains that the Patharkanali office is lodged in a thatched building, and that the Special Sub-Registrar's office space inadequate.

Projects for the reconstruction of the Bālaganj, Katigora and Madhabpur offices are pending allotment of funds.

20. The Inspector General inspected 7 Sadar and 16 rural offices in 1917, 7 Sadar and 11 rural offices in 1918 and 7 Sadar and 8 rural offices in 1919.

Inspection.

Inspections by District Registrars, Subdivisional Officers and Special Sub-Registrars were irregular. Most Subdivisional Officers seem to have lost sight of rule 14 at page 59 of the Registration Manual.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

G. C. KERWOOD,

Offg. Inspector General of Registration, Assam.

Resolution on the Administration of the Registration Department in the province of Assam for the years 1917-19.

Extract from the Proceedings of the Chief Commissioner of Assam in the General Department, No. 4771 G., dated Shillong, the 29th May 1920.

READ—

The Triennial Report on the Administration of the Registration Department in the province of Assam for the years 1917, 1918 and 1919.

RESOLUTION.

THIS report deals with the working of the Registration Department in the province of Assam for the three years ending 31st December 1919.

2. The number of offices at the end of the period under review was 41 against 39 at the close of last triennium. Two new offices were opened in the Surma Valley one of them has been made permanent.

3. The rate of pay of Special Sub-Registrars was raised from Rs. 175—5—250 to Rs. 180—10—250. The cadre of Sub-Registrars was also re-adjusted.

4. The number of documents registered was less by 1·68 per cent. than in the previous triennium, the total receipts of the department decreasing from Rs. 3,26,238 to Rs. 3,05,687. There are indications that, with the return of normal conditions, work will expand.

5. The Chief Commissioner regrets that some District Registrars and Special Sub-Registrars failed to make all the inspections due, and that Subdivisional Officers as a class were particularly remiss. He trusts that in future the rules for inspection will be observed.

The decrease in the number of unreturned documents is satisfactory.

6. While there was increase in the number of Muhammadan Registry offices, there was a decrease in the number of ceremonies registered. It is hoped that this falling-off is temporary.

ORDERED that the Resolution be published in the Assam Gazette.

By order of the Chief Commissioner of Assam,

A. R. EDWARDS,

Second Secretary to the Chief Commissioner of Assam.
